INFORMATION & PROGRAMS

Share your simcha. Don't know what to do with leftover catered food from your simcha? The Yehudah Mond Foundation can distribute your extra food to individuals and local families who have a need. To donate, call or have your caterer contact nechemia@zment.com or 301/537-7158.

Visitors brighten their day. Assisted living residents at Muriel House (4 Saddlerock Court) welcome visitors of all ages, children included. Nothing formal required: drop in for a short period, sing, play musical instruments, in morning or mid-afternoon. Call 301/681-6196 before coming.

Jobsearch resources you can use. Jewish Social Services Agency has short and more intense training programs to help you unearth the hidden job market, write a resume that will get you in the door, and ace difficult interview questions. Learn more about their career and employment services at jssa.org or call JSSA at 301/610-8380. Also check OU's website for numerous resources and to update your training. The two-day sessions are popular, and are free. The next ones are March 18 -19 and April 21-22. Space is limited.

Tomchei Shabbos. Do you know individuals or families who can't afford to buy food for Shabbos or Yom Tov? The Yehuda Mond Foundation will arrange local food deliveries in a confidential manner. Please contact Rabbi Moshe Arzouan if you know anyone who could benefit from this service. For more information on the Foundation, and how to provide much-needed tax-deductible support to this project, visit www.yehudamond.org.

*Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) training is provided free by Montgomery County. Further information is available at www.montgomerycert.org. If the community can find 20 people to participate, the county will arrange special Sunday sessions for us at KMS. If you are interested in participating, please contact beth@kmsynagogue.org.

FROM THE OU: The 8.8 magnitude earthquake that struck central Chile calls for another massive response from around the world and from the Jewish community. The Orthodox Union serves as a conduit of tzedakah and chesed to those in need. Even as the people in Haiti will continue to rely on our generosity in the months and years to come, so too the people of Chile and its Jewish community now need our urgent help. With your help, the Orthodox Union will continue to work with our partners, the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, the William J. Clinton Foundation, and others, to bring life saving assistance to those in Haiti and Chile. Visit ou.org for further information.
